

State of Hawaii 2011 Reapportionment Commission
Summary of Proposed Plan for the Congressional Districts for the United States House of Representatives

Proposed plan adopted by the Commission 08/05/11

Congressional District Population Target – 680,151

Congressional District 1 population of 680,496 is 0.05% above the target population.

Congressional District 1 had population increase from the 2001 redistricting of 606,718 to its 2010 population of 658,672. House district 1 needed to increase in size.

Congressional District 2 population of 679,805 is -0.05% below the target population.

House district 2 had population increase from the 2001 redistricting of 604,819 to its 2010 population of 701,629. House district 2 needed to decrease in size.

The H-1 Congressional Plan has a total deviation of 0.10%